Returns: Undecorated/unaltered blazers can be returned within 30 days of delivery, accompanied by a restocking fee. Customers are responsible for return shipping. Refunds are processed via the original payment method within about 4-8 business days upon receipt. For exchanges, follow the return instructions and specify the desired exchange. Once the blazer is received, along with applicable re-shipping and size difference fees, a replacement will be sent. Advance exchanges are also possible: follow the return instructions, indicate advance exchange, place a new order, and upon blazer receipt, a refund for its cost will be issued without restocking fees. All returns must meet specific conditions to be eligible: items should be clean, unworn, undamaged, and have intact tags for resale. Failing to meet these conditions will result in non-refundability, and customers are responsible for return shipping. Using tracked and insured shipping for returns is highly recommended, as we cannot be held liable for unreceived or damaged orders.
